The Gift of God

Freddie Coile

It could be said that the birth of Jesus Christ is the gift of God to the world. Jesus was a world changer from the cradle to the grave. His life is the greatest model of productivity and love that the world has witnessed. More people have been inspired by Him than any other.

But the greatest gift of God to us was not the birth of Jesus, nor even His life. The greatest gift of God is what God gives through His death.

None of us is perfect, are we? We have each fallen short of the glory, or perfection, of God.

“For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God.”
- Romans 3:23

Furthermore, the penalty of our sin is death, which means separation from God. We deserve what the Bible calls the second death - utter separation from God forever (Revelation 20:14). This is fair and just.

“And now He has an even better gift.”

But God wanted us to be with Him, so He sent His Son to make a rescue. Providing the way back to our Maker meant that Jesus would have to pay that death penalty that we owed. It would hurt Him but He would rather die than to leave us with no way back to our Maker.

So Jesus spilled His life’s blood on the horrid, awful cross. And

What is our Aim?

Our ministry aim hasn’t changed in its 20 years of going and teaching. We still are trying to accomplish two things.

The audiences continually change; they span every age group from elementary students to senior citizens. The listeners may be inmates one day and ministry interns the next. The setting might be a junior high youth camp one week and a church revival or a Bible conference the following week. But our aim is the same.

We aim to:

1. Preach a clear, understandable gospel message to the unsaved. They can’t understand how to live life until they know the Lord of life. We don’t enroll them in obedience school; or yell at God counted His death as an acceptable substitution for ours.

Yes, it was a great gift when Jesus came, at Bethlehem. It was a greater gift when He gave His life for us, at Calvary. And now He offers an even better gift.

The gift of God that matters most to each of us now is an eternal difference-maker.

“For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life.”

- Romans 6:23

For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God...” - Ephesians 2:8,9

Eternal life means that the second death cannot harm believers. It means that those who are given the greatest, longest lasting, most extravagant gift ever will be united into God’s family for keeps. Jesus is risen from the dead and is offering this gift all over the world right now.

Doesn’t it make sense? God has promised a gift to anyone who believes in His Son. The gift cost Jesus His life. It is yours for free. And it’s forever.

Right now, if never before, will you receive the gift of eternal life? Believe on Jesus Christ. Trust Him. He’s offering the best gift ever this Christmas. And your name is on it.

them for being sinners. We tell them the good news of the gospel. We use clear, understandable words and put the focus on the finished work of Christ. Then we call them to trust in Christ for eternal life apart from anything else.

2. Teach the Saved how to live according to what the Bible says. They need to know who they are and what they have in Christ. They need to grow in grace and the knowledge of the Lord. They need to be rooted in the Scriptures and strengthened in the inner man. If they receive the Word it will effectively work in them so they can become fruit bearers and walk in the light of fellowship.

The scope of our ministry is broad, but these two core objectives have kept our methods all pointed in the same direction. Behind everything we do lies our aim to preach the gospel to the lost and train the saved to live.

Thank you to all those who have supported our ministry, prayed for us, encouraged us, and helped us to keep on keeping on for the Lord. May the Lord bless you richly in this season. We hope to see you somewhere soon.

Letters from Camp!

“This week I dedicated my life to serve Him! I have changed so much here. I have learned so much here.”

“This week at camp I learn about the Bible cause one day I can go to Heaven. Are you? I hope u r. The only thing is to trust Jesus that He died on the cross and paid your sins.”

“I have trusted God as my Savior this week and with the great teaching of Freddie I have looked at everything with a different aspect in life.”

“I trusted Christ to save me!”

“God changed me when I was here. God will not let the Devil tempt us more than we can handle; and will always give us a way out... God is awesome!”

“God had a plan for me to come here and experience this. And my mindset is so different now. It really opened my eyes to the path I was going to the path I am going to go.”

“This week at camp I have learned a lot more about God that I would have not learned at church. This is the best experience that I have had yet.”

“I want to personally thank all of you for your support of this amazing ministry!”

“Thank you for supporting Grace Farm. It is where I want to live.”

Grace Farm Update

Grace Farm Promotional Breakfast

We are planning a Grace Farm Promotional Breakfast in Athens, Georgia on Saturday Dec. 3. Please pray for our efforts to make known to local churches and interested individuals what Grace Farm is all about. If you are interested in coming to the Breakfast let us know. We would love to have you! For more information: (330)204-0477.

No Building Team

The building team that we planned on arriving last summer to frame the Lodge building was unable to come. We accept this as a step in the Lord’s ultimate plan.

Waiting

We are currently waiting on the Lord to send us the workers to begin the next phase of building the Lodge. Waiting is not necessarily fun when a project is six years old, but we trust the Lord because... He’s all we have and all we want!

Serving

While we wait for workers, materials, and the Lord’s green light to build the Lodge; we are serving the Lord where we are with what we have. Our summer events at Grace Farm are planned as they have been for the last four summers. We accept the fact that we must limit the number of campers until the Lodge is built.

Summer Dates

Georgia Missions Project... June 3-9
Junior Camp ..... June 12-15
Camp Grace.....June 25-29

The early summer dates are subject to change according to school schedules. Space is limited so hurry and make your plans to come!
